The General Data Protection Regulation Privacy Policy

The Institute of Chartered Shipbrokers is committed to protecting your personal data and maintaining your privacy. The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) came into effect on 25 May 2018 and is a really positive step towards you having more control over how your data is stored, used and how you are contacted. The changes will also help protect your data. The Institute of Chartered Shipbrokers uses the personal data that you have shared with us for the purpose of your involvement as a student of the Institute. Students can log on to their profile in shipbrokers.org and view the data that we hold and update it any time. As a student of the Institute, you will receive some information from the Institute that is intrinsic to your education and exams (such as exam details and exam results) by post, email or telephone. The below opt in boxes allow you to manage what and how you receive other communications from us. Your data may be shared with your local Institute branch, teaching centre and exam centre as applicable, and our third party logistics provider for the purpose of distributing our magazine Shipping Network and other Institute publications. Your data will not be shared with any other third party without your express permission. Our new Privacy Policy is effective from 25 May 2018 and can be viewed at www.ics.org/about-us/privacy-policy
